

Guidelines for Interpreting and Responding to Questions

The following guidelines are intended to help you interpret and answer the questions included in the Women's Giving Circle Grant Application. You need not respond to every question included below. Rather, these are ideas for consideration, presented as "questions to ask yourself" as you prepare to describe your proposed program and write your answers to the individual questions.

Proposal Overview (page 1)

Nature and Purpose of the Proposed Program (page 1): Describe your grant request.

In this space give an overview of your proposed program. It is best to write the overview after you have completed the proposal. Explain your main points as simply as possible, i.e. title, purpose, who will it help, how will you recognize success. Ask yourself:

- What led to the decision to develop this program? Why is this program necessary?
- What do you plan to do? What knowledge or expertise do you or your organization have that will enable you to carry out this program?
- What are the characteristics of the population you will be working with?
- What do you hope to accomplish? How will this program help your target population?
- How will you know if you have been successful? (How will you recognize success?)

1. Mission statement: What is the mission statement of your organization? How does the proposed program help your organization meet its mission?

- Is the mission statement for your organization clearly stated? Does it reflect why the organization was created?
- Does the proposed program fall within the scope of your mission statement? Does your response clearly describe and clarify how the program being proposed furthers the mission of your organization?

2. Community needs: What need(s) in the Eau Claire area does your proposal address? How did you identify and document this/these local need(s)?
  - Does your response clearly identify a need experienced by women and/or children in our community?
  - Does your response clearly describe how the need(s) was determined? Are statistics given? Are local statistics provided? Are sources for the statistics identified? Was a survey(s) done to identify a need? Were surveys cited done locally?
3. Program differentiation: Describe how this proposed program differs from other similar programs and explain how it will avoid duplicating the services other organizations offer.
  - What similar programs can you cite? Are they local programs? In what ways are they similar or different?
  - Are the ways in which the proposed program differs from the similar programs clearly explained?
  - Have you explained in what ways the proposed program offers something new and innovative?
4. Organizational Collaboration: List other organizations (if any) that are collaborating on this program and describe their roles. If no collaboration is involved, explain why you believe your organization is capable of successfully implementing this program on its own.
  - What other organizations and/or nonprofits did you contact or discuss this program with? Why did you make these contacts?
  - How were you able to help that organization or how was that organization able to help you? Was a decision made to work on this program together?
  - If a cooperative program was developed, what contributions will the other organizations make?
  - If no other organizations are involved in developing or completing your program, how will you be able to implement the program without assistance?
5. Timeline: Explain the timeline for your proposed program. Use numbering to list the planning stages, activities, and events in chronological order.
  - What events are important to your program and need to be included in your timeline? What dates? What information?
  - The question asks for a numbered list. Have you provided a list?

- Have you included critical dates, activities and events? Have you provided a clear chronology?
6. Program activities: List and briefly describe up to three major program activities identified in your timeline and how they will help you accomplish the purpose of your program. Number each activity if you have more than one.
- How do the activities listed relate to the program you are proposing? Why are they significant? Are they listed in any specific order, chronological, importance?
  - How were these activities developed or selected?
  - Have you given a clear description of each activity, i.e. what will be done, who will provide direction, who will be involved?
  - In explaining your activities, have you clearly described how you will use the Women's Giving Circle funds?
7. Program evaluation: How will you know that your program has been successful? List up to three ways you will determine whether or not you were able to accomplish the purpose of your program.
- What evaluation methods do you plan to use with your program activities? (interviews, tests, observations, data recording, self-reports). How can you best explain your evaluation methods and why they were selected?
  - Who will evaluate the activities?
  - How will the results of these evaluations be recorded, compiled and communicated?
8. Program staffing: Describe how your program will be staffed and managed. (Include both paid staff and volunteers.)
- Who will be included in the staff involved with your proposed program (not the organization, the proposed program)? Paid? Volunteer?
  - What staff is necessary to accomplish the activities and purpose of your proposed program? Is that staff clearly described? Is it clear how staff will interact with the target population? Is it clear how staff and activities will be scheduled and coordinated?
9. Impact on the Eau Claire area target population: Explain what lasting effects the positive outcomes of the proposed program will have on the target population.
- Have you clarified what positive outcomes your proposed program hopes to accomplish? Are they program related? Are they target population related?

- How best can you describe both the positive outcomes and the lasting affects you want your program to have on the target population? How will you determine your level of success?

10. Women’s Giving Circle mission: In summary, explain how your proposed program would further the mission of the Women’s Giving Circle.

- Given the mission statement of the Women’s Giving Circle to “...distribute contributions to programs that improve life for women and children in the Eau Claire area”, how might it be furthered/enhanced by your proposed program?
- How well does your proposed program, its target population, its timeline, its stated activities, its desired accomplishments and its management plan fit with and further the mission of the Women’s Giving Circle?
- Have you explained how the community need you have identified fits with the mission of the Women’s Giving Circle?

Financial Information (page 3 -5)

Women’s Giving Circle Funding: Explain your requests for grant support in each budget category. Enter $0 for irrelevant budget items and NA for irrelevant text boxes.

- Review the Financial Information questions and the various categories included. What do you need to include in each category?
- Does the “Total WGC Funding” listed on page 4 of the application match the “Amount requested from the Women’s Giving Circle” entered on page 1 of the application?
- Are the amounts to be covered by the Women’s Giving Circle dollars noted and clarified as needed?
- Have you given a clear explanation as to how the Women’s Giving Circle funds will be used? Does it correlate with the amounts included in the Financial Information? Does the use of these funds fit with the mission of the Women’s Giving Circle?
- Have you provided justification of each budget item provided? Have you given necessary clarification for the presentation of the budget information?
- Have you reviewed the Program Grant Eligibility and Restrictions to confirm that your proposal is in compliance with the following requirements:
